THE FIRST READING Ezekiel 2: 1 to 5

The heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. When I saw this, I fell on my face, and I heard the voice of someone speaking. He said to me: O mortal, stand up on your feet, and I will speak with you. And when he spoke to me, a spirit entered into me and set me on my feet; and I heard him speaking to me. He said to me, Mortal, I am sending you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have transgressed against me to this very day. The descendants are impudent and stubborn. I am sending you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God.' Whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house), they shall know that there has been a prophet among them.

THE GOSPEL READING Mark 6:1 to 13

Jesus came to his home town, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?' And they took offence at him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Prophets are not without honour, except in their home town, and among their own kin, and in their own house.' And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief. Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, 'Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.' So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

KITCHEN PROJECT

STARTING 23 JULY 2018

For those who missed the recent announcement we are delighted to have been awarded a Community Buildings Grant from Biffa Award worth almost £36,000 to cover the majority of the kitchen fittings and equipment. This means the total raised is now over £93,000 and on reaching that figure the PCC has given the project the green light to proceed as soon as possible. We have now agreed a start date with the contractors of Monday 23 July with a view to completion in September. Thank you so much to everyone who contributes to all the activities that take place in our hall making it a valuable asset to the community and also to everyone who has donated to this project. Every penny donated and granted helped to secure the next monies as the project came closer to its target. On a practical note, if anyone has moved house recently and has any large boxes we could use to store the crockery, pots and pans etc during the build please get in touch. We will be clearing the kitchen gradually in the couple of weeks prior to the start date. Please bear with us as work progresses over the summer and we will keep you updated with progress. There is still a lot of work to do but we are really excited to be moving on to the next phase.
