THE COLLECT FOR TODAY

Almighty God, whose Son restored Mary Magdalene to health of mind and body and called her to be a witness to his resurrection: forgive our sins and heal us by your grace, that we may serve you in the power of his risen life; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

THE FIRST READING

2 Corinthians 5: 14 to 17

The love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

THE GOSPEL READING

John 20: 1,2 and 11 to 18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.' But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' She said to them, 'They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.' When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, 'Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.' Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!' (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, 'Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, "I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God."' Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord'; and she told them that he had said these things to her

SMART GARDEN PARTY 2 AUGUST 2018

From 2.00pm until 4.00pm we shall be having tea at the home of Patricia and Tony Bird. Will members please get in touch so we know numbers in advance. Several drivers are urgently needed to transport people to this event and to return them home afterwards. Please get in touch with Sarah Cousins on 01737 789943 by next Sunday 29 July at the latest if you can help.

DIANE EVANS - FUNERAL SERVICE

It is with great sadness that we report the passing of Diane Evans peacefully on Monday 9 July. Many of you will know Father David from our Thursday Iona service and our thoughts and prayers are with him and his family at this difficult time. Diane's funeral will be held on the 2 August at 2.00pm in Father David's former parish - St Andrews Church, Nuthurst, Horsham RH13 6LH.

May she rest in peace and rise in glory.

WAYSIDE WOMEN'S HOSTEL

Wayside hostel relies on kind donations from local people and companies. They are currently in the process of arranging the garden to be a place where the ladies can relax, but also a place where vegetables and herbs can be grown throughout the year, teaching the residents to nurture, prepare and cook their own produce.

For this to happen they are seeking donations of second hand gardening tools, seeds, plants, compost. If you have any tools etc lying in your shed which are no longer used please can you send donations via Revd. Anna who will deliver them on her next visit. Thank you in advance for your kindness and generosity

NO CAR PARKING - HALL CLOSED

From tomorrow, 23 July, there will be no parking available in the church or hall spaces from Monday to Friday at any time. This is to enable skips to be stored and building contractors to work. Thank you for your understanding.

AUGUST MAGAZINE

Final call for items and suggestions for the August issue of the magazine. Please ensure your contribution is with the Parish office by 10.00am on 25 July. We are looking for three people to join the team with fresh ideas and enthusiasm. Unleash your inner writer, let loose your creative flair and join us! Contact Reverend Anna or Shona in the Office for more information.

THE BRIDGE

The July/August edition of our diocesan newspaper is now available at the back of the church. Please do take a copy away with you as you leave today.

ST JOHN THE EVANGELIST REDHILL

St John the Evangelist Redhill require a Parish Administrator (paid position - £10.00 per hour) for 12.5 hours per week. You will be required to be in the office for 2.5 hours per day, Monday to Friday for a 2.5 hour slot between the hours of 9.00am to 1.00pm.

Located in the new Parish Office in our Church and Community Centre:

Responsibilities are wide-ranging and interesting and include Church Centre management; updating our Google calendar; liaising with the Vicar; using Churchsuite (our parish administration system); editing Pews News; and general support for the events, finance and other teams in church:

This is a people-facing role and you should be comfortable dealing with people – including the general public who will be using the new Church Centre:

Good computer skills (Word, Excel, PowerPoint and Google calendar) are also essential:

anyone who may be interested should contact the Reverend John Kronenberg at vicar@stjohnsredhill.org.uk or on 01737 766562.
