THE COLLECT FOR TODAY

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

THE FIRST READING

Ephesians 4: 25 to 5: 2

Putting away falsehood, let all of us speak the truth to our neighbours, for we are members of one another. Be angry but do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, and do not make room for the devil. Thieves must give up stealing; rather let them labour and work honestly with their own hands, so as to have something to share with the needy. Let no evil talk come out of your mouths, but only what is useful for building up, as there is need, so that your words may give grace to those who hear. And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were marked with a seal for the day of redemption. Put away from you all bitterness and wrath and anger and wrangling and slander, together with all malice, and be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you. Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

THE GOSPEL READING

John 6: 35 and 41 to 51

Jesus said to the crowd, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.' Then the Jews began to complain about him because he said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' They were saying, 'Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus answered them, 'Do not complain among yourselves. No one can come to me unless drawn by the Father who sent me; and I will raise that person up on the last day. It is written in the prophets, "And they shall all be taught by God." Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me. Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'

RENEWED HOPE TRUST

Renewed Hope Trust, which runs the East Surrey Winter Night Shelter, needs your help in the busy year-round Drop-In. Project Coordinator Alice Banks and Volunteer Administrator Ann Smith have moved on after more than four years at the charity. Community Outreach Coordinator Anna Coe will be filling the gaps while the Trustees consider new staffing needs. If you are free between 11.00am and 3.00pm any weekday please consider supporting her in the Drop-In, based in Redhill. Please call 07943 685660 or email info@rhtes.org for more details.

THE VENERABLE MARTIN BADDELEY, RIP

The Venerable Martin Baddeley died in Mowbery House, Malvern on Thursday 25 June. He had been unwell for the last couple of years. He was principle of the Southwark Ordination Course from 1980 until 1994, Co-principle of SETTE from 1994 until 1996, and from 1996 until his retirement in 2000 he was Archdeacon of Reigate. Martin Baddeley was very helpful to us during the incumbency of The Reverend Ian Robertson during the 1990s

HOLIDAYS

I am off on holiday returning on Monday 20 August until Sunday 26 August then away again from Monday 27 August until Tuesday 4 September.

You may be aware that as from September I will also be covering St Mary's Buckland and St Michael's Betchworth part-time until they appoint a new Rector. I will still be at St Mark's, just not every Sunday. Your prayers for this new venture are much appreciated. God Bless.
